Dear Ms. Hawthorne:

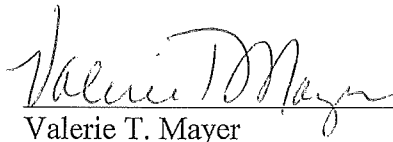

Please be advised that our Firm represents Health Education Center, LLC ("HEC"). It has come to the attention of our client that A Servant Heart Training Institute, LLC (the "Institute") has been using without permission the copyrighted material of HEC contained on its website and originally published in 2010. A recent examination of the Institute's website revealed that most of the HEC website text had been copied and included on a word-for-word basis on the Institute's website. The use of the copyrighted material without authority or permission is clear copyright infringement in violation of 17 U.S.C. §501.

On behalf of HEC, we therefore demand that you immediately cease and desist from all further use of copyrighted material which should include, but not be limited to, the removal of such copyrighted material from the Institute's website and ceasing any distribution of such copyrighted materials. To the extent any copyrighted materials are in your possession, they should be immediately destroyed. If the Institute fails to immediately comply, HEC has authorized our Firm to pursue all legal options. This will include the initiation of a Court proceeding to obtain an injunction barring any further unauthorized use of the copyrighted materials. Further, HEC will seek damages which by statute may be as high as $150,000 as well as attorneys' fees and legal expenses.

All communications regarding this matter should be directed to the undersigned attorney. A duplicate of this letter has been sent to the Institute's office address at 7813 Beulah Church Road, Suite 110, Louisville, Kentucky 40228-1700.

Sincerely,

MAYER HARROD LAW GROUP
