TEACH-Acthart

Are you transmitting a performance or display of a copyrighted work (NOT reproducing the work, distributing copies, adapting the work, etc.)?

Will the performance or display be given by means of a lawfully-made copy of the work (NOT a copy "ripped" from YouTube, a CD, a DVD, etc.)?

Is the work produced or marketed primarily for use in online education?

Is the performance or display made by or for an instructor and directly related to the teaching content of a class session?

4

Will the performance or display be limited to students enrolled in the course with technological measures in place to prevent retention or unauthorized dissemination of the work (e.g., stored on a secure server and distributed through Learning Suite, Canvas, or another password-protected LMS)?

_____ The Teach Act will likely

The TEACH Act does not apply.

not apply.

Please contact the BYU
Copyright Licensing Office
for more assistance.

The TEACH Act covers your use.

| TYPEOF USE | TYPEOF WORK  | AMOUNT AUTHORIZED UNDER THE TEACH ACT                      |
|----------------|--|--|
| Performance    | Nondramatic literaryor musical work                  | Entire work  |
|                | Any other work(including dramaticor audiovisual) | Reasonable and limited portions of the work                |
| Display        | Any work   | Amount comparable to a display in a live classroom session |

BYU Copyright Licensing Office | copyright.byu.edu